

Spring 1 Homework (Y5)

	Activity	must/should/could	Parent comment	Teacher comment
Project 12th February	Design a new medicine/healing potion and use ingredients in your home to mix them together. Measure accurately and write a list and accurate measurements. E.G. 100ml Washing up liquid, 50ml Shampoo... Write a description of what your medicine does to help your body and what illness it can help!	Emerging - Can you confidently use the internet as a research tool? Met - Can you use a range of technology and the internet as a research tool? Embedded - Can you confidently use a range of technology and the internet as a research tool and reference information sources?	(Has your child enjoyed the work? How independent have they been? What further learning might they benefit from? Anything else you would like us to know Etc)
Basic skills - Calculations Ongoing	Continue learning up to 12 x 12, and the related division facts. Multiply whole numbers and decimal numbers by 10, 100 and 1000.
Basic Skills - FDP 22nd January	Design your own Maths game for Fractions, Decimals and %. This game will then be played with your peers. It could be a card game, a board game - you decide!
Basic Skills - non-negotiable spellings/or a spelling rule Occasional tests throughout the half term / learnt spellings to be seen spelt correctly in written work	Topic spellings: Circulatory Medicine Heart Vessels Exercise Pulse Transports Capillary Artery Vein Weekly spellings to follow.	Be able to write a definition of each word and put it into a sentence.
Reading Challenge 22nd January	1. Choose a text about medicine/medical research (Can use Galen, Pasteur and Fleming) Write a short report on the information you have found out in a way of your choice 2. Create 5 reading comprehension question for a friend for your chosen text.			